Terms & Conditions

- 1. A minimum notice period of 30 days is required for all departing Permanent members.
2. All memberships are pre-paid excluding Permanent Casual where the monthly membership rate is pre-paid and daily access charged in lieu (based on frequency of access during the previous billing period).
3. Billing period begins on the 1st or 14th of each month. Your first membership invoice is calculated pro rata based on the start date and is due on the beginning of the next billing period.
4. Membership plans and additional services are invoiced on a monthly basis. Please advise us if payment receipts are required.
5. A completed J2 Coworking Member Agreement must be submitted by all permanent members to confirm agreement to the conditions outlined in the Covenant Terms detailed within. This document exists as a record of the rights of members and expectations of Junction 2 Coworking in relation to personal conduct, liability and use of the space.
6. Memberships may be put on hold, with the following restrictions applying:
  - a) Members are allowed one hold period per 6 months of membership (based on start date), up to a maximum of two hold periods per calendar year. We do not allow memberships to be put on hold during the Christmas/New Years billing period from December 14 to January 13.
  - b) A minimum hold duration of 30 consecutive calendar days and maximum hold duration of 60 consecutive calendar days is allowed per hold period.
  - c) Monthly membership fees will continue to be charged at a reduced rate - 30% of the usual monthly rate for the member's plan.
  - d) Two weeks notice is required to request a membership hold.
  - e) Your desk will remain reserved during the hold period. Other services are not accrued or credited during this time.
7. These Terms & Conditions may be revised at any time without prior notice. Changes will be communicated to members within a reasonable timeframe of the change applying.
